

The Better You Know a Thing
the Fewer Words You Need
With Which To Tell It.

All well need to tell about

JNO DEER BUGGIES

"Ask the Man Who Buys 'Em"

Quarles & Sadler
DRY GOODS CO.

HURRICANE.

Health of this place is very good.

The farmers of this place are all busy with their crops.

Walter Lawson had a mule to hurt itself Saturday.

The people of this community are excited about the war.

Jim Richardson and wife and Mrs. Will Lawson went to Meagsville.

Mrs. Mattie Phillips and two daughters, were the guests of Mrs. Tebitha Phillips.

Noah Hawkins and family, of Sugar creek, were the guests of

J. T. Phillips and family.

Author Muhrpy was the guest of J. T. Phillips.

Mrs. Mary Dodson is some better at this writing.

H. P. Price went to Gainesboro Saturday.

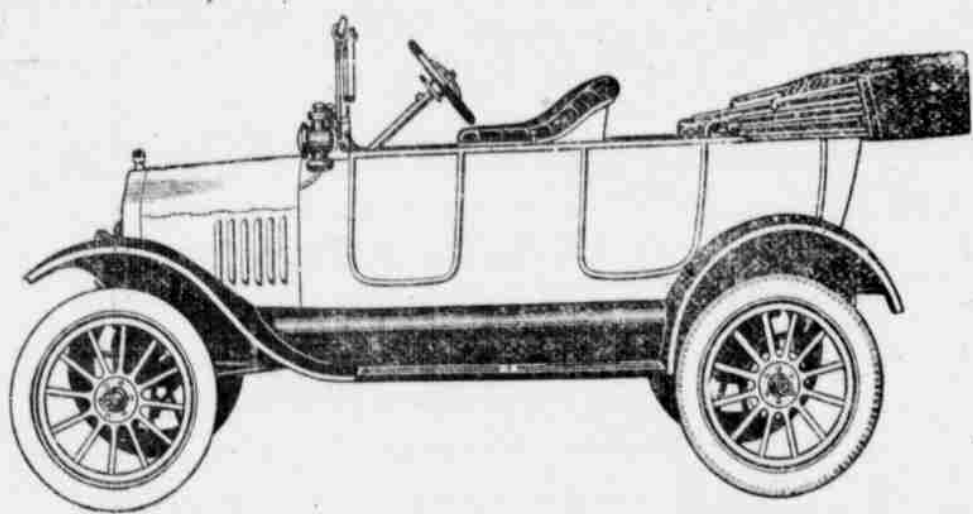

Mrs. J. T. Phillips and children were the guests of Mrs. H. B. Phillips.

Attend the Chautauqua at Gainesboro, May 19, 20, 21, 22. Benefit of Red Cross. You will enjoy yourself and help a patriotic cause.

WANTED—Farm hand to work through crop time. Good wages and board. W. A. Draper. Gainesboro, Tenn., Route 4.

LESS THAN 1 CENT A DAY

will keep you informed on ALL the IMPORTANT events that happen in your county, state and nation during the next twelve months, less than a one cent postage stamp a day. Of course you can afford it. It is too good to be true, but it is never the less a fact. Subscribe today for your county paper, Jackson County Sentinel and Daily Tennessean, both 1 year $3.50. They will keep you in touch with everything worth knowing. Tell your neighbors and friends about wonderful bargain. Call at the entinel office, or mail your subscription. It will have prompt attention.

BUY A CAR

Don't let this Summer go by without buying a car. Everybody is buying them now. You have the money, and we have the cars, LETS GET TOGETHER.

You could not please your wife, or family, in a more satisfactory way, than by purchasing a car. We are selling cars every week to the best people in the county. Fall in line and get yours NOW. Cicero said: "Wise men are instructed by reason, men of less understanding by experience, and beasts by nature." WE APPEAL TO YOUR REASON.

Buy a Ford car—the inexpensive car. There is a pride of Ford ownership, founded on the solid basis of a GOOD INVESTMENT.

DRAPER & McCAULEY, Agents
GAINESBORO, TENN.

Marietta Ladell.—A reader whose impersonations of childhood are perhaps the best on the American platform.

Chautauqua attraction May 19, 20, 21, 22. Don't miss it.

GAINESBORO R. 3.

Health of this place is very good.

The rain was enjoyed by all the farmers.

Logan Ragland is in Ark. for his health.

Riley Spurlock went to Fort Blount.

Bill Allen visited Wess Jones and family.

Frank Spurlock and wife spent Sunday with J. S. Jones.

Cora Brown spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Nannie Spurlock.

"Uncle" John Brown, of Whites Bend, visited his son, Mark Brown and wife.

Johnie Brown visited Edgar Spurlock.

J. B. Childress, S. S. Jackson and Jonas Ragland attended church at the Forks of the creek.

Willie Harris, wife and little son, Noah, visited J. S. Jones.

Carlross Spurlock spent Sunday in Shake rag.

MAYFIELD.

We are having some very cool weather the last few days.

D. A. Rawley has moved from Cookeville to his farm at this place.

W. L. Mabry spent Sunday night with his brother, George Mabry.

John Petty and wife and Carlloss Mabry spent Saturday night at Jim Mabry's.

Jim Mabry and wife took dinner at J. H. Haney's.

Milton Bean and wife spent the night at A. D. Flatts.

Rosa Lee Allen visited her sister, Vera Haney.

Bud Robinson called on Jim Mabry.

Willis Loftis passed thru here Sunday.

Jesse Pippin visited his sister, Louise Martin.

L. G. Cason visited his mother, Mrs. Jim Mabry.

Kirk Stewart went to Cookeville Saturday.

Several attended the burial of "uncle" George Haney, who was killed by a train at Nashville last week.

There was speaking at Center Grove Sunday on food preparedness, attended by a large number of farmers.

MEN WANTED.

The Government is calling for men for the army, navy and marine corps. Select the branch of service you prefer and offer your services freely. Do not wait for the conscript law to get you. Anyone between the ages of 21 and 40 can enlist in the above service. Send me your name or call at the Post office.

F. L. Tardy, P. M.
Recruiting Agent

GRANVILLE DEPARTMENT.

Rankin Robinson, of Elmwood, was in this city Sunday.

Horace Page made a business trip to Gordonsville Monday.

John Butler, of Salt Lick, was here Thursday.

Thurston Smith has returned to his home in Sherman, Texas.

Clara Watts was in Chestnut Mound Saturday.

Jesse Elrod, of Nashville, was here on business last week.

Ben F. Baugh, of Flynns Lick, was the guest of Walter Cooper.

S. U. Crawford, of Whites Bend, was here on business Saturday.

Vivian Cooper, of Flynns Lick, was the guest of Mary Emma Cooper.

J. C. Jackson and J. H. Daniel made a business trip to Nashville Wednesday.

Ernest Tinsley, of Gainesboro, called on our merchants last week.

Celton Hackett, of Rough Point spent Saturday night with Henry Gailbreath.

Mrs. H. L. Bough, of Flynn's Lick, spent the week-end with relatives here.

C. G. Gailbreath, who has been very ill for several weeks, is now improving.

Miss Dona Mai Williamson spent Wednesday night with Mary Emma Cooper.

John Miller representing Firestone Co., Arkton, Ohio, was here Thursday.

Misses Alice Stanton and Pearl Montgomery, of Martin's creek, were shopping here Thursday.

Miss Ova Boyd, who has charge of the music department of the High school, will give a recital on next Saturday evening May 12.

Mesdames W. M. Gailbreath and Mary Gore, of Gainesboro, spent the week-end with C. G. Gailbreath and wife.

Charley Maloney, of Cookeville, was here Thursday. Mr. Maloney is agent for the Maxwell car.

A play that was greatly appreciated was that given by the Parent-Teachers Association at the High School building Saturday evening. The play was entitled the "Old Maids Convention." A packed audience witnessed the play from this and neighboring counties.

The task assigned to each character reflected much credit on each actor. The affair was conducted by its president, Mrs. A. B. Hargis and learned secretary, Mrs. H. B. Smith. They showed marked ability and fitness for the position they each occupied. The play consisted of more than 20 characters, of which only one male took part, Prof. M. E. Gray. The audience was held spell-bound for a period of 1 hour and 45 minutes. The door receipts, the bright silver side of the play, resulted in the sum of 36 eagles. This money will be used for the benefit of public school children.

FAIRVIEW.

Most of the farmers are planting this pretty weather.

Buck Hix and wife visited Joe Richardson and family.

Mrs. Lucy Bybee and daughter, Florence, visited Mady Norton.

Will Brown, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving.

D. L. Peek has been planting corn for the past week.

John Kinnard planted corn Monday.

Donnell Peek visited Carl Whit

NOTICE.

I will be in Granville Monday, May 14th, prepared to do any and all kinds of dental work. Make your appointment at once.

Respt.

A. D. BYRNE.

Chautauqua at Gainesboro, May 19, 20, 21, 22. Benefit of Red Cross. Lets show our patriotism by attending.

Charley Williamson, who attends the Carthage High School, spent the week-end with home-folks.

Miss Virgie Johnson, of Flynns Lick, attended a play here the latter part of the week.

Bill Williamson of the firm of Williamson Bros. made a business trip to Gainesboro Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon McDonald, of near Chestnut Mound, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Miss Ethel Knight, of Chestnut Mound, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Tom Watts.

Mrs. H. S. Holleman was called to the bedside of her father, Mr. Boyd, of Baxter, who is very ill.

R. H. Dowell and son, Thurston, accompanied by R. L. Hargis and daughter, Anna Ruth Hargis, motored to Nashville and spent the week-end with friends and relatives.

Dr. A. D. Byrne, of Gainesboro motored to this city in his new Ford Sunday. He was accompanied by P. J. Anderson, Fred Tardy, Herman Haile and Johnie Gipson.

Misses Emily Jellicourse and Jimmie Albert Ferrell, of Elmwood, spent Saturday with the formers sister, Mrs. Malise Dowell.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Haile, of Gainesboro, were the week-end guests of Mr. Haile's sister, Mrs. Dona Gailbreath.

Miss Lillian Page accompanied by Mrs. James Washburn and little son, Donald Roberts, and Miss Mary Sadler spent the week end with Dr. Page and family.

Two interesting speeches were delivered on the present war situation by P. J. Anderson and F. L. Tardy. Mr. Tardy discussed the food situation, while Mr. Anderson discussed the real war side.

H. S. Page, who has been visiting home folks for the past two months, has returned to Cuba where he will resume his duties as assistant commissary manager with C. P. C. Co.

Tom Gailbreath entertained with a little folks party Friday night. Among those present were: Medora, Elenor and Martha Beasley Maddux, Eliza Freeman, Ruby Williamson, Vallie Gold Smith, Maggie Lou Huff, Margaret and Katherine Hargis, Howard Green, Albert Ferrell, Joseph Fox and Carl Daniel.

aker.

Josh Pigg and son, visited T. H. Norton.

Mady Norton visited Mrs. Will Brown.

S. L. Pate and wife visited on Wartrace this week.

Miss Micca Draper, of Route 4, was in town Wednesday.

CHAUTUAQUA, May 19, 20, 21, and 22—4 BIG DAYS.